

Contents

Acknowledgements	i
Introduction by Michael Geist	iii

Standard of Review and the Courts

1. Of Reasonableness, Fairness and the Public Interest: Judicial Review of Copyright Board Decisions in Canada's Copyright Pentalogy – Graham Reynolds	1
2. Courts and Copyright: Some Thoughts on Standard of Review – Paul Daly	47
3. The Context of the Supreme Court's Copyright Cases – Margaret Ann Wilkinson	71

Fair Dealing

4. Fair Use 2.0: The Rebirth of Fair Dealing in Canada – Ariel Katz	93
5. Fairness Found: How Canada Quietly Shifted from Fair Dealing to Fair Use – Michael Geist	157
6. The Arithmetic of Fair Dealing at the Supreme Court of Canada – Giuseppina D'Agostino	187
7. Fair Dealing Practices in the Post-Secondary Education Sector after the Pentalogy – Samuel E. Trosow	213
8. Fairness of Use: Different Journeys – Meera Nair	235

Technological Neutrality

9. Technological Neutrality: (Pre)Serving the Purposes of Copyright Law – Carys J. Craig	271
10. Technological Neutrality in Canadian Copyright Law – Gregory R. Hagen	307