

Contents

	Notes on contributors	page vii
	Introduction Mark Elliott and David Feldman	1
1	The distinctiveness of public law David Feldman	17
2	The politics of public law David Howarth	37
3	The rule of law in public law Jeremy Waldron	56
4	Legislative supremacy in a multidimensional constitution Mark Elliott	73
5	The politics of accountability Tony Wright	96
6	Rights and democracy in UK public law Aileen McHarg	116
7	Public law values in the common law Mark Aronson	134
8	Public law and public laws Paul Craig	153
9	Public law and privatisation A.C.L. Davies	172
10	State architecture: subsidiarity, devolution, federalism and independence Christopher McCrudden	193

vi Contents

11	Soft law never dies Richard Rawlings	215
12	The impact of public law litigation Maurice Sunkin	236
13	Designing and operating constitutions in global context Cheryl Saunders	256
	Index	275