

Contents

Contributors	viii
Foreword by Kimberly Prost	xvi
Acknowledgements	xix
Abbreviations	xx
 Introduction Neil Boister and Robert J. Currie	 1
 PART I Concepts and regulation	 9
1 The concept and nature of transnational criminal law Neil Boister	11
2 The protection of human rights in the suppression of transnational crime Robert J. Currie	27
3 Transnational crime: an interdisciplinary perspective James Sheptycki	41
4 The United Nations criminal justice system in the suppression of transnational crime Stawomir Redo	57
5 Regional organisations and the suppression of transnational crime Valsamis Mitsilegas	73
 PART II Procedure	 89
6 Jurisdiction over transnational crime Roger S. Clark	91

Contents

7	Police cooperation against transnational criminals Saskia Hufnagel and Carole McCartney	107
8	Mutual legal assistance in criminal matters to control (transnational) criminality John A.E. Vervaele	121
9	Asset recovery Charles Monteith and Pedro Gomes Pereira	137
10	Extradition of transnational criminals Joanna Harrington	153
PART III
Substantive crimes		167
A Migration and exploitation crimes		169
11	Human trafficking Tom Obokata	171
12	Migrant smuggling Anne T. Gallagher	187
13	Child sex tourism Lindsay Buckingham	210
B Commodity crimes		227
14	Drug trafficking Bernard Leroy	229
15	Weapons smuggling Catherine E. Drummond and Anthony E. Cassimatis	247
16	Cultural property trafficking Arianna Visconti	264
17	Environmental theft and trafficking Rob White	280
18	Environmental degradation: the dumping of pollution as a transnational crime Jay L. Batongbacal	297

19	Intellectual property offences Henning Grosse Ruse-Khan	312
C	Facilitative and organizational crimes	329
20	Money laundering William Gilmore	331
21	Criminalizing corruption: the global initiatives John Hatchard	347
22	Piracy and suppression of unlawful acts against the safety of maritime navigation Douglas Guilfoyle	364
23	Cybercrime Christopher Ram	379
24	Terrorism as a transnational crime Ben Saul	394
25	Transnational organised crime Andreas Schloenhardt	409
PART IV
	Implementation	435
26	Implementation of transnational criminal law: issues and challenges Yvon Dandurand and Vivienne Chin	437
	Index	453