I Concepts and Applications of the Embodied Approach to Sport Science: Foundational and Methodological Notions 1

1 Embodied Cognition and Sport 3
Lawrence Shapiro and Shannon Spaulding

2 Emotions on the Playing Field 23
Daniel D. Hutto, Michael D. Kirchhoff, and Ian Renshaw

3 Trading Perception and Action for Complex Cognition: Application of Theoretical Principles from Ecological Psychology to the Design of Interventions for Skill Learning 47
Paula Silva, Adam Kiefer, Michael A. Riley, and Anthony Chemero

4 Flipping Sport Psychology Theory into Practice: A Context-and Behavior-Centered Approach 75
Geir Jordet and Gert-Jan Pepping

- II Theories of Skill and Skill Disruption: Awareness, Automaticity, and Control 99
- 5 The Many Threats of Self-Consciousness: Embodied Approaches to Choking under Pressure in Sensorimotor Skills 101
Massimiliano L. Cappuccio, Rob Gray, Denise M. Hill,
Christopher Mesagno, and Thomas H. Carr
Mesh: Cognition, Body, and Environment in Skilled Action—A New Introduction to “Cognition in Skilled Action” 157
Wayne Christensen and John Sutton
- 6 Cognition in Skilled Action: Meshed Control and the Varieties of Skill Experience 165
Wayne Christensen, John Sutton, and Doris McIlwain
- 7 Questioning the Breadth of the Attentional Focus Effect 199
Barbara Gail Montero, John Toner, and Aidan P. Moran
- 8 Knowledge, Consciousness, and Sporting Skills 223
Jens E. Birch, Vegard Fusche Moe, and Gunnar Breivik
- III Learning by Moving: Skill Development through Physical Education and Sport Pedagogy 247
- 9 Embodied Cognition and Sport Pedagogy 249
Denis Francesconi and Shaun Gallagher
- 10 Complex Motor Activities to Enhance Cognition 273
David Moreau and Phillip D. Tomporowski
- 11 Neither Genes nor Deliberate Practice: An Embodied and Multidimensional Approach to Talent 303
Mirko Farina and Alberto Cei
- 12 Emerging Technologies for Sport Performance Enhancement: Embodied Cognition and Manipulation of Brain Rhythms 333
Miriam Reiner

- IV The Intersubjective Dimension of Skill: Mutual Understanding, Coordination, and Empathy in Team Sports 357
- 13 Action Understanding, Motor Resonance, and Embodied Simulation in Sports: Bridging Ecological and Neuroscientific Approaches 359
Ana Maria Abreu, Pedro Tiago Esteves, and Salvatore Maria Aglioti
- 14 Action Imitative and Prediction Error–Induced Contagions in Human Actions 381
Tsuyoshi Ikegami, Hiroki Nakamoto, and Gowrishankar Ganesh
- 15 Planning Together and Playing Together 413
Lincoln J. Colling
- V Enculturated, Gendered, and Disciplined Bodies: Approaches to Performance and Motivation in the Social Sciences 443
- 16 Excellence without Mental Representation: High Performance in Risk Sports and Japanese Swordsmanship 445
Jesús Ilundáin-Agurruza, Kevin Krein, and Karl Erickson
- 17 Stereotype Threat and the Female Athlete: Swimming, Surfing, and Sport Martial Arts 485
Michele Merritt, Audrey Yap, Cassie Comley, and Caren Diehl
- 18 Ethnomethodological Respecifications of Cognition in Sport 511
Raúl Sánchez-García, Giolo Fele, and Kenneth Liberman
- VI Affordances and Action Selection 535
- 19 The Irreducible Embeddedness of Action Choice in Sport 537
Duarte Araújo, Keith Davids, and Patrick McGivern
- 20 Selecting among Affordances: A Basis for Channeling Expertise in Sport 557
Duarte Araújo, Matt Dicks, and Keith Davids
- 21 Affordances and the Ecological Approach to Throwing for Long Distances and Accuracy 581
Andrew D. Wilson, Qin Zhu, and Geoffrey P. Bingham
- 22 Affordances and the Anticipatory Control of Action 601
Wayne Christensen and Kath Bicknell
