

Contents

List of Tables	vi
Notes on Contributors	vii
1 Introduction: In Pursuit of a European Dialogue on White-Collar and Corporate Crimes Nicholas Lord, Éva Inzelt, Wim Huisman and Rita Faria	1
PART I: Researching White-Collar and Corporate Crimes in Europe
2 Using Grid-Group Cultural Theory to Assess Approaches to the Prevention of Corporate and Occupational Crime: The EU as a Natural Experiment Jeroen Maesschalck	17
3 How to Prioritize White-Collar Crime Research in the European Union in Relation to Internal and External Security Sunčana Roksandić	39
4 Corruption and Comparative Analyses across Europe: Developing New Research Traditions Nicholas Lord, Karin van Wingerde and Michael Levi	55
PART II: Financial Crimes and Illicit Financial Flows
5 Identifying ‘Europeanness’ in European White-Collar Crime: The Case Study of Criminal Responses to ‘Market Abuse’ Sarah Wilson	75
6 Anti-Money Laundering and the Legal Profession in Europe: Between Global and Local Katie Benson	89
7 Responding to Money Laundering across Europe: What We Know and What We Risk Karin van Wingerde and Anna Merz	103

PART III: White-Collar Crime: European Case Studies

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 8 | Food Production Harms in the European Context:
The EU as an Enabler or a Solution?
Ekaterina Gladkova | 125 |
| 9 | Understanding the Dynamics of White-Collar
Criminality in Ukraine
Anna Markovska and Iryna Soldatenko | 143 |
| 10 | Labour Exploitation and Posted Workers in the European Construction Industry
Jon Davies | 163 |
| 11 | Struggles in Cooperation: Public–Private Relations in the Investigation of Internal Financial Crime in the Netherlands
Clarissa Meerts | 175 |
| 12 | Cartel Cases: From State Negligence to Direct Political
Interest in Hungary
Éva Inzelt and Tamás Bezsenyi | 187 |

PART IV: Responding to White-Collar Crimes in Europe

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 13 | Silencing Those Who Speak Up against Corporate
Power: Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation
(SLAPPs) in Europe
Judith van Erp and Tess van der Linden | 207 |
| 14 | Same Difference? Reflections on the Comparative
Method in White-Collar Crime Research in Ireland and the United States
Joe McGrath and Deirdre Healy | 221 |
| 15 | Settling with Corporations in Europe: A Sign of Legal Convergence?
Liz Campbell | 237 |

PART V: Observations from Outside of Europe

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 16 | Observations on European White-Collar Crime
Scholarship from the United States
Melissa Rorie | 255 |
| 17 | What Is ‘European’ about White-Collar Crime in Europe? Perspectives from the Global South
Diego Zysman-Quirós | 271 |

CONTENTS

18	Learning (Multiple) Lessons from Europe: Criminological Scholarship on White-Collar Crime Fiona Haines	285
	Index	303